

Laetitia Kohler

is a swiss dancer based in Basel. She works as dancer, choreographer and dance teacher. She studied at the Basel Dance Academy and at the Zürcher Hochschule der Künste, and graduated with a Bachelor in Contemporary Dance. She won the Migros Kulturprozent study award scholarship two times. She worked as a dancer with Gross dance company (NL), the Mainfranken Theater Würzburg with Anna Vita (DE), Theater Basel for the opera “Andersen’s Erzählungen”, Snorkel Rabbit (CH) and others. She worked as a choreographer’s assistant with Tabea Martin on the piece « Forever » and as co-director for Cirque Starlight in 2020.

She is co-founder and choreographer of KoHalition dance with Sarah Hammond.

Since 2019, Laetitia is a full staff member for Modern Dance at the Basel Dance Academy.